16TH YEAR. NO. 12.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1900.

TWO CENTS

FOUND DEAD. IN THE WOODS

Body of Thomas Kephart, Aged 63,
Discovered Near His Hut
Above the Power House.

HAD BEEN DEAD THREE DAYS

Lived Alone and Died Within a
Short Distance of His One
Room Shanty.

The authorities were notified this morning that the dead body of Thomas H. Kephart had been found lying outside the hut in which he had been living on the hillside just above the power house. He was a carpenter and did odd jobs, making enough to support himself in a humble way. He was about 63 years of age.

The body when found was in a terrible condition, and it is likely that he died some time Monday evening or Tuesday morning. The neighbors say that they last saw him on Monday forenoon. Kephart moved here with his family about 11 years ago from Emlenton, Pa., living first in a shanty boat on the river. For some years past, however, he has not been living with his wife, and has been allowed by the street car company to occupy a small house belonging to them.

The building is located on a by-road but little and running up the hill to Pennsylvania avenue. It is not more than five rods from the nearest house occupied by Peter Welch.

The contents of his little home were undisturbed and gave every appearance of having been left with the expectation of his coming back in a short time. He must have just completed a meal, as the dishes were still upon the table.

Squire Rose was asked by the authorities to investigate the case. He found the body in the little garden just outside the house, with the man's head in a little gutter running down the hillside. There were no signs of violence on the body. An undertaker was sent for and took the body to prepare it for burial.

An examination of his room showed a note from Dr. Calhoun, stating that he had called, but found no one at home.

Kephart has a wife, Mrs. Margaret Kephart, and five daughters. Four of the girls live with their mother at 180 Church alley and one is the wife of Robert Woolmaker, who lives in Sugar alley.

Kephart had suffered from inflammatory rheumatism for over a year. He complained of not feeling well on Monday when seen by one of his daughters. Mrs. Kephart, who works at Thompson's pottery, says she thinks she saw him walking up the track yesterday morning.

The body was taken by Undertaker Rinehart to his rooms by order of the township trustees. The authorities decided that as it was almost a certainty that there had been no foul play an inquest over the body was not necessary. The corpse was not in a condition to be viewed or kept any length of time, and burial was made this afternoon in the Spring Grove cemetery.

Pottery Men Return to Work.
Akron, June 22.—At a conference the Robinson Merrill company compromised with the striking potters and its three potteries resumed today. Other potteries will resume on the same basis, 600 men who have been idle for a month going to work.

FOOLED THE KIDS.

The Rat Was the Boss of the Situation and Escaped Unscathed.

This afternoon the kids captured an immense Norway rat and had him snugly housed in a cage. All the youngsters of Drury lane, armed with broomsticks, clubs, brickbats and dornicks, assembled near Washington street and then gave the rodent his liberty and went after him hot with the full armament on hand, with the result that every stroke aimed at the victim missed him by a mile, several youngsters suffered from skinned shanks, and the air was full of Filipino language and street slang, amid which the would-be victim reached a side grating, sat gazing at the tumult from a safe position inside, and then dived down into the cellar.

WANT WITNESSES.

Deputy Sheriff Bick is in the City Today
Serving Subpoenas for Special Grand Jury.

Deputy Sheriff Bick is in the city today serving subpoenas on witnesses who are wanted to appear before the special grand jury, which convenes at Lisbon next Monday. Two Liverpool cases will be considered by the jury, namely: Ohio vs. Fox, for cutting with intent to wound, and Ohio vs. Crosby. Fox is the party who slashed Bennett across the face with a knife and Crosby is the party who kicked John Cannon in the jaw.

LIBRARY COMMISSION

Approved the Plans of Architect Scott and Twelve Sets Will be Sent Out.

The Carnegie library commission met last evening and finished going over the plans and specifications for the new library and found them to be all correct. Architect Scott presented the board with a certified check for $1,000 that the library would not cost more than $45,000. Twelve sets of plans will be sent out to contractors and builders who desire to bid on the contract.

LOSS ADJUSTED.

Star Bargain Store Fire Settled and Clerks Are Now at Work
Cleaning Up.

The loss at the Star Bargain store has been adjusted and a force of clerks are at work today cleaning up the debris caused by the fire, and the store will again be opened to the public some time next week. The loss to the building has also been adjusted and the owner, John Harvey, was awarded $316 by Adjusters King and Sage.

Citation Issued.

Lisbon, June 22.—(Special.)—John H. Murray caused a citation to issue in probate court today against Robert Belat and other heirs of the late Nancy Ann Murray, of Hanover township, to show cause why in the order of preference they should not either take or renounce the administration of the estate. They will appear before the court on June 25.

both of East Liverpool.

NEWSPAPERMEN WON THE GAME

Some of Their Best Players Were Out of the Game and They

HAD TO FILL UP THE NINE

With Inferior Players But Still Managed to Easily Defeat
Joseph Bros.

THE CONTEST WAS ONE SIDED

Clothiers' League.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Newspaper Men.....	1	0	1,000
Joseph Bros.....	1	1	.500
Erlangers	0	1	.000

The newspaper men didn't do a thing to the Joseph team yesterday afternoon, defeating them by a score of 16 to 5 in six innings, and if the game had lasted longer the newspaper men never would have stopped making runs, as they knocked Cook all over the lot in the sixth.

The newspaper men went to the bat first and managed to make one run on a succession of errors and a hit by Bullock. Joseph Bros. made three in their half on two bases on balls and an error by Herbert, who threw the ball to the fence trying to catch Lynch stealing second.

A terrible catastrophe took place in the second inning when J. Herbert went to bat. He hit the air very hard for three times and it was several seconds before the spectators and players managed to get their breath. The team revived, however, and managed to score one.

Joseph Bros. got a goose egg in the second, third, fourth and fifth, while the newspaper men made three in the third, one in the fifth and nine in the sixth. The game was called at the beginning of the seventh on account of rain. The score:

pitches—Bullock 2, Cook 1. Umpire—Miller.

Notes.

Thus have the mighty fallen. The newspaper men are a stiff proposition at any time, and Joseph Bros. found it out to their sorrow.

Manager Shenkel got a bad finger in practice and had to lay off.

Bullock made the record of the season. Only one hit in six innings and against sluggers like Lynch, Godwin and Gladden.

Joseph Bros. want another game. They can get it after they get a reputation.

Who leads the Clothiers league? The newspaper men.

They can sell shirts all right, but they can't play ball.

The paid player, Godwin, didn't do much.

And we didn't do a thing to them, did we?

What are the sad waves saying: "Where, or where, is that Joseph Bros.' team."

A. Joseph still has a per centage of 1,000 in fielding, but his batting average ain't much.

Sol Whit is the happiest man in town. Ask him about it.

That supper will probably consist of sandwiches and toothpicks.

Two great events took place yesterday. McKinley and Roosevelt were nominated by the Republicans and the newspaper men defeated Joseph Bros.

The police force were on the ground to preserve order.

Lynch was excited at certain stages in the game.

For sale cheap—One pair of bicycle trousers; used in two ball games. Apply to A. Joseph.

It is expected one team in the Clothiers' league will disband. You can't guess which one it is.

If Henry Joseph had only been there.

Joseph Bros. thought they had a cinch, but it was the wrong way when the game ended.

THEY WILL PLAY.

Packers and Warehousemen at Knowles' Will Cross Bats Tomorrow Afternoon.

The warehouse men and packers of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery will come together on the base ball diamond tomorrow afternoon. The teams will line up as follows:

Warehousemen—L. Aley, catcher; S. Pollock, pitcher; R. Rutledge, short; S. Smith, first; F. Johnson, second; S. Campbell, third; G. Baum, left; W. Aley, middle; W. Powell, right.

Packers—F. Smith, catcher; J. Coleman, pitcher; D. Boughton, short; J. Durkin, first; R. Ashbaugh, second; G. Arthur, third; O. French, first; M. Coleman, middle; W. Denning, right.

A Terrible Suspicion.

The belief is growing in Canal Dover that Elmer Eckert, the young man killed in Philip Spritzenbach's spring house yesterday morning by a gun trap set for thieves, is an innocent victim. James Eckert, father of the dead boy, is an inmate of the Massillon asylum. Relatives here insist that young Eckert, when killed, was returning from visiting his parents and stopped at the spring house for a drink. Eckert's sister, Mrs. Adolph Strickworth, lives about 500 yards from Spritzenbach, and the theory is that the lad was on his way there. This news is being kept from Spritzenbach, whose reason is almost unseated by what he has done.

Church Picnic.

Lisbon churches and Sunday schools will hold a union picnic at Shelton's grove Friday, June 29.

BIG FIRE TODAY IN PITTSBURG

Started Near the Corner of Fifth and Wood Streets and Blazed
Two Hours.

SEVERAL BUILDINGS BURNED

Fire Began Back of the Old Chronicle
Telegraph Building and Spread Rapidly.

LOSS WILL REACH THOUSANDS

Pittsburg, June 22.—(Special.)—Fire broke out this afternoon in the rear of the old Chronicle-Telegraph building, near the corner of Fifth and Wood street. The fire originated on the first floor, but in a few minutes the entire rear of the building was in flames. Duff's college caught next. The fire gained great headway at first, having started about 1:45. The Allegheny fire department was called to assist in putting out the fire, and by 2:30 the blaze was under control. Before 3 o'clock the fire was out.

Snag Boat Here.

The United States snag boat E. A. Woodruff went down the river yesterday. She has been working at Davis island dam and passed down to Steuvenville to raise the barge that was sunk last spring by the towboat James Moren.

It Comes Out in the Washing—The Cloven Foot is Sure to Protrude.

There came into the city of East Liverpool, some time since, a fellow with unsavory repute, having the record of being a dead beat, dodging the payment of his printing and advertising bills, and slipping out of the towns or cities, where he temporarily sojourned, between darkness and the coming of the light of day. He traveled light, making it a point to see that the law could not reach and punish him. He has been unusually lucky in this city, and has played a band of confiding suckers to the limit. But the scales have gradually dropped from the eyes of his dupes, and he has found it necessary to seek fresh pastures, as filthy lucre has ceased to rattle into his coffers and the larder shows scant forage. Some one will be the poorer and wiser in consequence of his leave taking. Some innocent parties will suffer, more's the pity; but there will also be some sufferers who were duly forewarned and placed on their guard respecting the artful dodger and sleek scoundrel. For this latter class we have no sympathy to waste; they deserve just what they will get. The man or woman who places trust in a libertine, dead beat and charlatan, builds on a very poor foundation.

AT PROBATE COURT.

Settlement of Estates—Application for a Guardian—Other Court News.

Lisbon, June 22—(Special)—J. H. Azdell was today appointed administrator of the estate of the late Mattie A. Azdell, of this city. A bond in the sum of $2,000 was required, and J. K. Frew, E. C. Lewton and John Nevin were chosen to make the appraisal.

An application was filed asking for the appointment of a guardian for Hannah Rutledge, an alleged imbecile of Hanover township. The matter will be before the court on June 27.

Eva A. Caldwell, widow of the late Thomas Caldwell, of Fairfield townvisions of her husband's will were explained to her. She elected to take under the same.

In the case of George B. Fife, guardian, vs. John Fife, an order of private sale was issued.

KHAKI UNIFORM
On a Manly Soldier Attracts Much Attention While Visiting in Salem.

Salem Herald.
Morris J. Carnahan, formerly a member of Company E, Eighth Ohio volunteer infantry, of East Liverpool, but now of Troop M, Second U. S. cavalry, is in the city visiting relatives. His regiment is now stationed at Matanzas, Cuba, about 400 miles from where he served with the Eighth Ohio.

Mr. Carnahan is attired in the latest style regulation khaki uniform, which differs in many respects from the uniform worn during the Spanish-American war.

After spending a 30-day furlough in the states he will return to his troop. Mr. Carnahan has business here which will require his attention for a few days. He came to Salem yesterday from Alliance. His fine figure, military bearing and peculiar uniform attracts much attention.

We will never honor 'em with another game. They're not in our class.

Have you heard from the suave, the courteous, the elaborate, the ornamental, the ever confident, smiling, newspaper annihilating batter, Monsieur Roy Shenkel.

Orders of the Joseph Bros. nine before the game: "Sock the three first batters in the ribs, and you'll never get another newspaper man within four feet of the home base." Oh me, oh my; how have the mighty fallen.

M'KINLEY AND ROOSEVELT.

It is a ticket in which all Republicans take great pride. It is a tower of strength and a bulwark for the safety and prosperity of this great nation. It is a combination on which the party stands as a unit. Soldiers and statesmen are the principals at the head of the Grand Old Party. It represents the masses. It betokens an overwhelming victory for Republicanism next November. It betokens four years more of prosperity. It imparts confidence to every business man and every business venture. It tells the story of honest currency and national credit unimpaired. It stands of Old Glory and everything good boldly out in favor of the upholding which the flag represents. It stands for the people and the people will stand by it. Hurrah for McKinley and Roosevelt, fitting representatives of a great republic.

Church Rules.

Bishop Horstman, of the Catholic church, has promulgated a number of rules governing the action of his parishioners during the summer months. Societies organized for beneficial purposes, whose benefits are confined to the membership or societies organized for private ends, will not be permitted to appeal to the public for charity. Such appeals are to be made only when the funds are to be used in a public way. All kinds of round dancing, dancing in halls or ball rooms, for the purpose of raising money for church purposes, or public charities are strictly and unqualifiedly forbidden. Moonlight excursions, picnics continued after nightfall, and meetings of the people where morals or good behavior are endangered are strictly forbidden.

Nothing But Difficulties.

One of the projectors of the cross-county steam railway remarked to the Buckeye a few days since that the reduction in the price of steel rails has removed the only obstruction to the early entering upon the active work of building the road, and he thought they would begin work about next—but just then he noticed the incredulous smile on the reportorial face that he had so often seen before, and walked away in evident disgust. The great trouble with which the builders of this road have to contend is the multiplicity of difficulties, one following immediately upon the removal of that which preceded it. Whenever the supply of difficulties is exhausted something will probably be done.

Fight on Growler.

A fight occurred just above Toronto Tuesday evening on the C. & P. train known as the "growler," in which the train crew were worsted. A crowd of Empire men boarded the train at Toronto. A disagreement arose between one of them and Conductor Thomas Leith over a fare. The brakeman interfered and was knocked out completely. A railroad detective also came to the rescue, but other Empire people joined in, and the railroad people were overpowered, and the man who claimed he paid his fare and his friends left the train when they got ready. No arrests.

COUNTY SOLDIER CENSUS.

Complete Official Returns for Every Precinct in Columbiana County.

Appended are the complete returns by townships and precincts of the assessors of their enumeration of ex-soldiers of the civil war and the Spanish American war. It is scarcely necessary, says the Buckeye State, to say that these figures are only approximately correct. In this regard they are very like other returns by the assessors, being in many cases conspicuous for their incorrectness. If the roster of the ex-soldiers of the remainder of the county is as incomplete as they are in Lisbon, the list is certainly an approximation to correctness. In Lisbon there are a number of old soldiers whose names are not on the list, for the simple reasons that the assessors neglected to make proper inquiries. Again, the returns are, in some cases, almost undecipherable, it being apparent that the compilers thereof are not only scarcely able to write but have no idea whatever of the proper method of filling out the blanks with which they are provided. If their returns are so incomplete in the matter of statistics, what they must be in the line of placing values upon property can scarcely be imagined. Some of the books filed with the auditor are absolute curiosities, and more resemble the scratchings of a child with a dull stub of a pencil than official returns. It is a crying demand that a better class of men be chosen for assessors.

The following are the figures for this county, as correctly as they could be secured from the books.

Death of Mrs. Foster.

Superintendent M. M. Southworth, of the Fairmount Children's home, Alliance, has received a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Bird Foster at Cambridge. She has been ill since last September. Two years ago she resigned her position as teacher at the Fairmount home, where she had been employed for seven years. She was a lady of high Christian character and was dearly beloved by many acquaintances, who will be pained to learn of her death.

While in Alliance she was a member of the Presbyterian church, but soon after leaving there she united with the Methodist church in Cambridge. She was 43 years of age. Her husband died some 11 years ago. Miss Hattie Rowles, a sister, who is employed at the home, left for her bedside three weeks ago.

ARRESTED AGAIN FOR NON-SUPPORT

Jack Quinn Failed to Live Up to
His Promises to Justice
McCarron.

AND MAY BE SENT TO JAIL

Officer Aufderheide Runs Him In and He Is Now Chasing $300 Bond.

IT IS NOT HIS FIRST OFFENSE

Officer Aufderheide last evening placed Jack Quinn under arrest upon a charge of non-support filed by his wife in the court of Squire McCarron. This is the second time Quinn has been before McCarron on the same charge and the last time he agreed to give her $4 per week and was released providing he fulfilled the contract. He didn't do it, however, and Squire McCarron this morning bound him over to court in the sum of $300. If he don't secure the bond some time today he will be taken to Lisbon to be sentenced.

Quinn is an old offender and it would be a hard matter to tell just how many times he had been in court on charges of non-support. He is a splendid pleader and a good man to make promises and has been very lucky in escaping a trip long before this time.

AS NOW GOING ON.

A HALF DRESSED MAN

Cannot expect to meet with success. Our clothing is always up-to-date, and priced to please the pocket. Buy a suit of us while the sun shines; for, when the sunless days come, our Summer Bargains will be in the hands of wise purchasers.

Our Tail of Summer Sale is going on, and it will be well for you to take advantage of it. You will save money by doing so.

THE WRONG SIZE

In suit or trousers, is never found upon our customers. Our stock is so large and well assorted and our salesmen so careful that the possibility of misfits are eliminated.

Clothing for men and boys of all ages.

The goods are interesting whether examined from the standpoint of quality, style or price.

EXPERIENCE TEACHES

Our customers that values here are ever becoming greater, while prices are kept down to a dead level or reduced a point or two. But we want those who have not purchased Men's Furnishings here to get some of the many good things we offer. Every line contains a fine assortment of stylish articles of fine quality.

OUR many customers and friends know, from our past sales, that we don't make any sensational or impossible assertions. We advertise only that which we do. We manufacture all our own goods. We always save you the middleman's profit; and when we have these SPECIAL SALES, we don't profess to sell goods for less than cost, as that is unreasonable, and no sensible man or woman believes it. But what we do advertise, and what we really do, is to sell all goods at about the cost of manufacture. We do this for the simple reason that we want to turn our stock into cash, and make room for our Fall Stock, as we always want to have nice, new, clean, nobby goods each season. We usually wait until after the FOURTH of JULY to make our reductions; but this season, knowing that there are a great many men and boys who will want a new suit for the FOURTH, we commence two weeks earlier. We haven't the time or space to give you any prices at this time; but if you need—

EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

TERMS EXPIRED.

ONE WELLSVILLE AND TWO EAST LIVERPOOL PRISONERS

Released Yesterday from the County Jail at Lisbon After Prolonged Visits.

Lisbon, June 22.—(Special.)—John Brown, of Wellsville, and Neff Laird and Freeman French, of East Liverpool, were released from jail yesterday on expiration of term.

Brown was in for stealing a ham, Laird for stealing ware and French for cruelty to an animal and malicious destruction of property.

IT WAS FUNNY.

And the Landlord Enjoyed the Situation in a Marked Degree.

He is a tenant, and one of that class known to landlords as exasperating. He is a self-important individual, pompous and pretentious, the quintessence of egotism and self-conceit. If he were in the market, and you were bidding for the possession of his physical frame, there would be a vast difference between the price he would set upon himself and that you were willing to give for him.

As we said in the beginning of this article, he is a tenant, or renter. His landlord is a pleasant, courteous, obliging gentleman, but possessed withal of an aggressive temperament and not possessed with Job-like patience. The landlord desired to make the tenant's domicile look more than usually neat and attractive, and with his end and aim in view sent a painter to the house where Mr. Egotism sojourned, with instructions to the artist to expend his best skill on one of the doors of the domicile. Mr. Renter met the artist with the following summary:

"You'll do no painting here. You'll not touch that door. I'm running this establishment. I pay rent for this house, I do, and I'll run it to suit myself."

The abashed and discomfited slinger of colors beat an ignominious retreat and met the owner of the house on one of the prominent thoroughfares, told his story and was persuaded to return to the scene of conflict. Then the landlord put on his most winning and courteous smile and was more thoroughly called down than was the long-suffering and patient painter. Then the landlord tried the soft answer dodge, the use of which is warranted to turn away wrath. But this met with even a more chilling and austere reception. Then the landlord waxed warm beneath his vestment as he said:

"Oh, come now, that isn't fair. I'm really doing you a favor and want to fix up affairs nicely for you. I've secured this gentleman's services and I don't want him to go away without doing this job of painting. Painters are scarce, and you can't get one just when you want him. You're not in earnest, are you? You're only joking. I'm sure?"

And to this, Old Consequential said: "No, I'm not joking, and I won't be annoyed any more. I pay rent for this house and I'll run it to suit my own fancy and pleasure. You'll not put any paint on that door if I know myself, and I think I do."

And then our townsman spat on his digits, figuratively speaking, and Dame Rumor intimates that he made use of swear words in his wrath, winding up with the following orders to the painter man:

"Take the screws out of that door and then take the door to your shop and paint the thing to the queen's taste. Do her up brown and then bring her back and boost her into her place again, and this Smart Alec can go on guard and do sentry duty until you finish the job."

And that painter obeyed orders, and that renter made the air blue with a side conversation; but he didn't have sand, and the landlord has sand and to spare. Selah.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

How It Stood In 1896 and How Doubtful States Have Voted Since.

During the coming campaign questions will frequently be asked regarding the vote for president in 1896 in the electoral college and what changes there have been since then in the political complexion of the states.

The electoral vote of the United States in 1896 stood as follows:

States.	McKinley.	Bryan.
Alabama	11	3
Arkansas	8	3
California	8	1
Colorado	4	3
Connecticut	6	3
Delaware	3	3
Florida	4	3
Georgia	13	3

Tennessee	12
Texas	15
Utah	3
Vermont	4
Virginia	12
Washington	4
West Virginia	6
Wisconsin	12
Wyoming	3

Totals 271 176

McKinley's majority 97.

Since then and at the elections of 1898, Kansas, Wyoming and Washington, with their respective Bryan votes of 10, 3 and 4, or 17 in all, went Republican, Kansas by 15,134, Wyoming by 1,394 and Washington by 9,113, thus taking from the Bryan presidential column of 1896 just 17 votes, and leaving 159. Besides this the Republicans carried Kentucky last year for governor by 2,383 and California also last year by 19,093 in which two states Bryan in 1896 had one vote in each, and thus Bryan's vote in the electoral college is further reduced by two, and down to 157. The electoral college this year, as in 1896, consists of 447 votes, and 224 is necessary to elect.

BACK TO MANSFIELD.

GUARD FROM THE REFORMATORY HERE AFTER PITTINGER.

Mayor Davidson's Court Had an Off Day, But a Few Cases Were Disposed Of.

Robert Pittenger will go back to the Mansfield reformatory. That question has been finally settled and a guard from the reformatory will arrive in the city this evening for the purpose of taking charge of the unruly prisoner and putting him in a place where he will be good.

Susy McCoy, who was with Pittenger when he was arrested, was given a hearing by the mayor yesterday. She was fined $25 and costs, a total of $29.60. She didn't have the cash, but a friend of her's said he would pay the bill. He didn't have the cash and was given until today to get it. If the money is not forthcoming before tomorrow morning Susy will be given a ride to the Canton workhouse, where she will spend several months in learning how to behave herself.

Terry McGill, who was arrested by Officer McDonald, was assessed $1 and costs, paid it and was released.

Charles Smith, who was arrested by Officers Gill and Dawson, came from Youngstown. It cost him $5.60 to square up with the police department of this city. He paid it and left a sadder but wiser man.

There was not one arrest last night and business at the police court was consequently very slow this morning.

LADY MACCABEES.

New Lodge Formed in Alliance by Great Commander Mrs. E. S. Olds.

Mrs. Emma S. Olds, great commander L. O. T. M. of Ohio, and lieutenant supreme commander of the world, instituted a hive of the Ladies of the Maccabees in the lodge room, Memorial building, at Alliance this week. Forty-one persons were admitted to membership, and a banquet was held after the institution of the new hive.

The order of the L. O. T. M., was organized in 1892 and now has a membership of 130,000, there being 15,000 in Ohio. The order is fraternal and beneficial. The new hive promises to have a membership of over 100 by the close of the year.

Base Ball.

Dedicated to Joseph Bros.

Have you heard of the game of those Clothiers so bold,
Of the backing they had in good, yellow gold;
Of the boasts which they made as to how they would win
And gather those foolish paper men in?
Oh, alas and alack, and pity their bluff,
They bucked against fate—got more than enough,
And now they lament and with dread sorrow strive
When they glance at the score of sixteen to five.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1900.

TWO CENTS

FOUND DEAD. IN THE WOODS

Body of Thomas Kephart, Aged 63,
Discovered Near His Hut
Above the Power House.

HAD BEEN DEAD THREE DAYS

Lived Alone and Died Within a
Short Distance of His One
Room Shanty.

The authorities were notified this morning that the dead body of Thomas H. Kephart had been found lying outside the hut in which he had been living on the hillside just above the power house. He was a carpenter and did odd jobs, making enough to support himself in a humble way. He was about 63 years of age.

The body when found was in a terrible condition, and it is likely that he died some time Monday evening or Tuesday morning. The neighbors say that they last saw him on Monday forenoon. Kephart moved here with his family about 11 years ago from Emlenton, Pa., living first in a shanty boat on the river. For some years past, however, he has not been living with his wife, and has been allowed by the street car company to occupy a small house belonging to them.

The building is located on a by-road used but little and running up the hill to Pennsylvania avenue. It is not more than five rods from the nearest house occupied by Peter Welch.

The contents of his little home were undisturbed and gave every appearance of having been left with the expectation of his coming back in a short time. He must have just completed a meal, as the dishes were still upon the table.

Squire Rose was asked by the authorities to investigate the case. He found the body in the little garden just outside the house, with the man's head in a little gutter running down the hillside. There were no signs of violence on the body. An undertaker was sent for and took the body to prepare it for burial.

An examination of his room showed a note from Dr. Calhoun, stating that he had called, but found no one at home.

Kephart has a wife, Mrs. Margaret Kephart, and five daughters. Four of the girls live with their mother at 180 Church alley and one is the wife of Robert Woolmaker, who lives in Sugar alley.

Kephart had suffered from inflammatory rheumatism for over a year. He complained of not feeling well on Monday when seen by one of his daughters. Mrs. Kephart, who works at Thompson's pottery, says she thinks she saw him walking up the track yesterday morning.

The body was taken by Undertaker Rinehart to his rooms by order of the township trustees. The authorities decided that as it was almost a certainty that there had been no foul play an inquest over the body was not necessary. The corpse was not in a condition to be viewed or kept any length of time, and burial was made this afternoon in the Spring Grove cemetery.

This afternoon the kids captured an immense Norway rat and had him snugly housed in a cage. All the youngsters of Drury lane, armed with broomsticks, clubs, brickbats and dornicks, assembled near Washington street and then gave the rodent his liberty and went after him hot with the full armament on hand, with the result that every stroke aimed at the victim missed him by a mile, several youngsters suffered from skinned shanks, and the air was full of Filipino language and street slang, amid which the would-be victim reached a side grating, sat gazing at the tumult from a safe position inside, and then dived down into the cellar.

The newspaper men didn't do a thing to the Joseph team yesterday afternoon, defeating them by a score of 16 to 5 in six innings, and if the game had lasted longer the newspaper men never would have stopped making runs, as they knocked Cook all over the lot in the sixth.

The newspaper men went to the bat first and managed to make one run on a succession of errors and a hit by Bullock. Joseph Bros. made three in their half on two bases on balls and an error by Herbert, who threw the ball to the fence trying to catch Lynch stealing second.

A terrible catastrophe took place in the second inning when J. Herbert went to bat. He hit the air very hard for three times and it was several seconds before the spectators and players managed to get their breath. The team revived, however, and managed to score one.

Joseph Bros. got a goose egg in the second, third, fourth and fifth, while the newspaper men made three in the third, one in the fifth and nine in the sixth. The game was called at the beginning of the seventh on account of rain. The score:

Notes.

Thus have the mighty fallen. The newspaper men are a stiff proposition at any time, and Joseph Bros. found it out to their sorrow.

Manager Shenkel got a bad finger in practice and had to lay off.

Bullock made the record of the season. Only one hit in six innings and against sluggers like Lynch, Godwin and Gladden.

Joseph Bros. want another game. They can get it after they get a reputation.

Who leads the Clothiers league? The newspaper men.

They can sell shirts all right, but they can't play ball.

The paid player, Godwin, didn't do much.

And we didn't do a thing to them, did we?

What are the sad waves saying: "Where, or where, is that Joseph Bros.' team."

A. Joseph still has a per centage of 1,000 in fielding, but his batting average ain't much.

Sol Whit is the happiest man in town. Ask him about it.

That supper will probably consist of sandwiches and toothpicks.

Two great events took place yesterday. McKinley and Roosevelt were nominated by the Republicans and the newspaper men defeated Joseph Bros.

The police force were on the ground to preserve order.

Lynch was excited at certain stages in the game.

For sale cheap—One pair of bicycle trousers; used in two ball games. Apply to A. Joseph.

It is expected one team in the Clothiers' league will disband. You can't guess which one it is.

If Henry Joseph had only been there.

Joseph Bros. thought they had a cinch, but it was the wrong way when the game ended.

THEY WILL PLAY.

Packers and Warehousemen at Knowles' Will Cross Bats Tomorrow Afternoon.

The warehouse men and packers of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery will come together on the base ball diamond tomorrow afternoon. The teams will line up as follows:

Warehousemen—L. Aley, catcher; S. Pollock, pitcher; R. Rutledge, short; S. Smith, first; F. Johnson, second; S. Campbell, third; G. Baum, left; W. Aley, middle; W. Powell, right.

Packers—F. Smith, catcher; J. Coleman, pitcher; D. Boughton, short; J. Durkin, first; R. Ashbaugh, second; G. Arthur, third; O. French, first; M. Coleman, middle; W. Denning, right.

A Terrible Suspicion.

The belief is growing in Canal Dover that Elmer Eckert, the young man killed in Philip Spritzenbach's spring house yesterday morning by a gun trap set for thieves, is an innocent victim. James Eckert, father of the dead boy, is an inmate of the Massillon asylum. Relatives here insist that young Eckert, when killed, was returning from visiting his parents and stopped at the spring house for a drink. Eckert's sister, Mrs. Adolph Strickworth, lives about 500 yards from Spritzenbach, and the theory is that the lad was on his way there. This news is being kept from Spritzenbach, whose reason is almost unseated by what he has done.

SEVERAL BUILDINGS BURNED

Fire Began Back of the Old Chronicle
Telegraph Building and Spread Rapidly.

LOSS WILL REACH THOUSANDS

Pittsburg, June 22.—(Special.)—

Fire broke out this afternoon in the rear of the old Chronicle-Telegraph building, near the corner of Fifth and Wood street. The fire originated on the first floor, but in a few minutes the entire rear of the building was in flames. Duff's college caught next. The fire gained great headway at first, having started about 1:45. The Allegheny fire department was called to assist in putting out the fire, and by 2:30 the blaze was under control. Before 3 o'clock the fire was out.

A terrible catastrophe took place in the second inning when J. Herbert went to bat. He hit the air very hard for three times and it was several seconds before the spectators and players managed to get their breath. The team revived, however, and managed to score one.

Joseph Bros. got a goose egg in the second, third, fourth and fifth, while the newspaper men made three in the third, one in the fifth and nine in the sixth. The game was called at the beginning of the seventh on account of rain. The score:

Notes.

Thus have the mighty fallen. The newspaper men are a stiff proposition at any time, and Joseph Bros. found it out to their sorrow.

Manager Shenkel got a bad finger in practice and had to lay off.

Bullock made the record of the season. Only one hit in six innings and against sluggers like Lynch, Godwin and Gladden.

Joseph Bros. want another game. They can get it after they get a reputation.

Who leads the Clothiers league? The newspaper men.

They can sell shirts all right, but they can't play ball.

The paid player, Godwin, didn't do much.

And we didn't do a thing to them, did we?

What are the sad waves saying: "Where, or where, is that Joseph Bros. team."

A. Joseph still has a per centage of 1,000 in fielding, but his batting average ain't much.

Sol Whit is the happiest man in town. Ask him about it.

That supper will probably consist of sandwiches and toothpicks.

Two great events took place yesterday. McKinley and Roosevelt were nominated by the Republicans and the newspaper men defeated Joseph Bros.

The police force were on the ground to preserve order.

Lynch was excited at certain stages in the game.

For sale cheap—One pair of bicycle trousers; used in two ball games. Apply to A. Joseph.

It is expected one team in the Clothiers' league will disband. You can't guess which one it is.

If Henry Joseph had only been there.

Joseph Bros. thought they had a cinch, but it was the wrong way when the game ended.

THEY WILL PLAY.

Packers and Warehousemen at Knowles' Will Cross Bats Tomorrow Afternoon.

The warehouse men and packers of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery will come together on the base ball diamond tomorrow afternoon. The teams will line up as follows:

Warehousemen—L. Aley, catcher; S. Pollock, pitcher; R. Rutledge, short; S. Smith, first; F. Johnson, second; S. Campbell, third; G. Baum, left; W. Aley, middle; W. Powell, right.

Packers—F. Smith, catcher; J. Coleman, pitcher; D. Boughton, short; J. Durkin, first; R. Ashbaugh, second; G. Arthur, third; O. French, first; M. Coleman, middle; W. Denning, right.

A Terrible Suspicion.

The belief is growing in Canal Dover that Elmer Eckert, the young man killed in Philip Spritzenbach's spring house yesterday morning by a gun trap set for thieves, is an innocent victim. James Eckert, father of the dead boy, is an inmate of the Massillon asylum. Relatives here insist that young Eckert, when killed, was returning from visiting his parents and stopped at the spring house for a drink. Eckert's sister, Mrs. Adolph Strickworth, lives about 500 yards from Spritzenbach, and the theory is that the lad was on his way there. This news is being kept from Spritzenbach, whose reason is almost unseated by what he has done.

BIG FIRE TODAY IN PITTSBURG

Started Near the Corner of Fifth
and Wood Streets and Blazed
Two Hours.

SEVERAL BUILDINGS BURNED

Fire Began Back of the Old Chronicle
Telegraph Building and Spread Rapidly.

LOSS WILL REACH THOUSANDS

Pittsburg, June 22.—(Special.)—Fire broke out this afternoon in the rear of the old Chronicle-Telegraph building, near the corner of Fifth and Wood street. The fire originated on the first floor, but in a few minutes the entire rear of the building was in flames. Duff's college caught next. The fire gained great headway at first, having started about 1:45. The Allegheny fire department was called to assist in putting out the fire, and by 2:30 the blaze was under control. Before 3 o'clock the fire was out.

Snag Boat Here.

The United States snag boat E. A. Woodruff went down the river yesterday. She has been working at Davis island dam and passed down to Steuvenville to raise the barge that was sunk last spring by the towboat James Moren.

It Comes Out in the Washing—The Cloven Foot is Sure to Protrude.

There came into the city of East Liverpool, some time since, a fellow with unsavory repute, having the record of being a dead beat, dodging the payment of his printing and advertising bills, and slipping out of the towns or cities, where he temporarily sojourned, between darkness and the coming of the light of day. He traveled light, making it a point to see that the law could not reach and punish him. He has been unusually lucky in this city, and has played a band of confiding suckers to the limit. But the scales have gradually dropped from the eyes of his dupes, and he has found it necessary to seek fresh pastures, as filthy lucre has ceased to rattle into his coffers and the larder shows scant forage. Some one will be the poorer and wiser in consequence of his leave taking. Some innocent parties will suffer, more's the pity; but there will also be some sufferers who were duly forewarned and placed on their guard respecting the artful dodger and sleek scoundrel. For this latter class we have no sympathy to waste; they deserve just what they will get. The man or woman who places trust in a libertine, dead beat and charlatan, builds on a very poor foundation.

Settlement of Estates—Application for a Guardian—Other Court News.

Lisbon, June 22—(Special)—J. H. Azdell was today appointed administrator of the estate of the late Mattie A. Azdell, of this city. A bond in the sum of $2,000 was required, and J. K. Frew, E. C. Lewton and John Nevin were chosen to make the appraisal.

An application was filed asking for the appointment of a guardian for Hannah Rutledge, an alleged imbecile of Hanover township. The matter will be before the court on June 27.

Eva A. Caldwell, widow of the late Thomas Caldwell, of Fairfield townvisions of her husband's will were explained to her. She elected to take under the same.

In the case of George B. Fife, guardian, vs. John Fife, an order of private sale was issued.

KHAKI UNIFORM

On a Manly Soldier Attracts Much Attention While Visiting in Salem.

Salem Herald.

Morris J. Carnahan, formerly a member of Company E, Eighth Ohio volunteer infantry, of East Liverpool, but now of Troop M, Second U. S. cavalry, is in the city visiting relatives. His regiment is now stationed at Matanzas, Cuba, about 400 miles from where he served with the Eighth Ohio.

Mr. Carnahan is attired in the latest style regulation khaki uniform, which differs in many respects from the uniform worn during the Spanish-American war.

After spending a 30-day furlough in the states he will return to his troop. Mr. Carnahan has business here which will require his attention for a few days. He came to Salem yesterday from Alliance. His fine figure, military bearing and peculiar uniform attracts much attention.

AT MARTIN'S FERRY.

Marriage of Miss Sadie Knox and Thomas L. Potts, of Cleveland.

Martin's Ferry, June 20—(Special)—At high noon today at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Matheny, on South Broadway, occurred the marriage of Miss Sadie Knox and Thomas L. Potts, a prosperous business man of Cleveland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Bogle in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties. Immediately after the ceremony and the usual congratulations the wedding party were seated to a sumptuous feast.

The happy couple left at 2:23 o'clock this afternoon for Cleveland where they will make their future home.

KHAKI UNIFORM

On a Manly Soldier Attracts Much Attention While Visiting in Salem.

Salem Herald.

Morris J. Carnahan, formerly a member of Company E, Eighth Ohio volunteer infantry, of East Liverpool, but now of Troop M, Second U. S. cavalry, is in the city visiting relatives. His regiment is now stationed at Matanzas, Cuba, about 400 miles from where he served with the Eighth Ohio.

Mr. Carnahan is attired in the latest style regulation khaki uniform, which differs in many respects from the uniform worn during the Spanish-American war.

After spending a 30-day furlough in the states he will return to his troop. Mr. Carnahan has business here which will require his attention for a few days. He came to Salem yesterday from Alliance. His fine figure, military bearing and peculiar uniform attracts much attention.

AT MARTIN'S FERRY.

Marriage of Miss Sadie Knox and Thomas L. Potts, of Cleveland.

Martin's Ferry, June 20—(Special)—At high noon today at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Matheny, on South Broadway, occurred the marriage of Miss Sadie Knox and Thomas L. Potts, a prosperous business man of Cleveland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Bogle in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties. Immediately after the ceremony and the usual congratulations the wedding party were seated to a sumptuous feast.

The happy couple left at 2:23 o'clock this afternoon for Cleveland where they will make their future home.

THEIR LINEUP.

Good Showing.

Buckeye State.

There are 5,321 children of school age in East Liverpool, indicating a total population of 18,624. This is a most satisfactory showing, indicating an increase of population in ten years, since the federal census of 1890, of 7,668 or seventy per cent. No other town in the county can even approximate this showing except Lisbon, which, figuring on the same basis as that applied to East Liverpool, has a total population of 3,960, an increase of 1,682, or 73.8 per cent.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1900.

This Date In History—June 22.

1497—Nicolas Machiavel (better known as Machiavelli), Italian statesman who reduced intrigue to a science, died;
born 1469.

1685—John Fisher, bishop of Rochester, beheaded in the Tower; born 1459.

1714—Matthew Henry, English
Biblical commentator, died;
born 1662.

1727—George II became king.

1748—Thomas Gay, author of "Sandford and Merton," born; died 1789.

1806—Emile de Girardin, journalist, Red Republican and speculative writer, born in Paris; died 1881.

1815—Second and final abdication of Napoleon;

Waterloo was lost by the French June 18.

1884—At 9 p. m., in Smith's sound, Captain

Schley's command reached and rescued Lieutenant A. W. Greely and six others, only survivors of the Greely expedition to Lady Franklin bay.

1896—Hon. Benjamin Bristow, ex-secretary of the treasury, died in New York city; born 1832

1898—General Shafter's corps made the first landing on Cuban soil at Daiquiri.

Machiavelli.

Oh, but we cooked him.

And they did play Godwin. Oh, my!

We will never honor 'em with another game. They're not in our class.

Have you heard from the suave, the courteous, the elaborate, the ornamental, the ever confident, smiling, news-

Orders of the Joseph Bros. nine before the game: "Sock the three first batters in the ribs, and you'll never get another newspaper man within four feet of the home base." Oh me, oh my; how have the mighty fallen.

M'KINLEY AND ROOSEVELT.

It is a ticket in which all Republicans take great pride. It is a tower of strength and a bulwark for the safety and prosperity of this great nation. It is a combination on which the party stands as a unit. Soldiers and statesmen are the principals at the head of the Grand Old Party. It represents the masses. It betokens an overwhelming victory for Republicanism next November. It betokens four years more of prosperity. It imparts confidence to every business man and every business venture. It tells the story of honest currency and national credit unimpaired. It stands of Old Glory and everything good boldly out in favor of the upholding which the flag represents. It stands for the people and the people will stand by it. Hurrah for McKinley and Roosevelt, fitting representatives of a great republic.

Church Rules.

Bishop Horstman, of the Catholic church, has promulgated a number of rules governing the action of his parishioners during the summer months. Societies organized for beneficial purposes, whose benefits are confined to the membership or societies organized for private ends, will not be permitted to appeal to the public for charity. Such appeals are to be made only when the funds are to be used in a public way. All kinds of round dancing, dancing in halls or ball rooms, for the purpose of raising money for church purposes, or public charities are strictly and unqualifiedly forbidden. Moonlight excursions, picnics continued after nightfall, and meetings of the people where morals or good behavior are endangered are strictly forbidden.

Nothing But Difficulties.

One of the projectors of the cross-county steam railway remarked to the Buckeye a few days since that the reduction in the price of steel rails has removed the only obstruction to the early entering upon the active work of building the road, and he thought they would begin work about next—but just then he noticed the incredulous smile on the reportorial face that he had so often seen before, and walked away in evident disgust. The great trouble with which the builders of this road have to contend is the multiplicity of difficulties, one following immediately upon the removal of that which preceded it. Whenever the supply of difficulties is exhausted something will probably be done.

Fight on Growler.

A fight occurred just above Toronto Tuesday evening on the C. & P. train known as the "growler," in which the train crew were worsted. A crowd of Empire men boarded the train at Toronto. A disagreement arose between one of them and Conductor Thomas Leith over a fare. The brakeman interfered and was knocked out completely. A railroad detective also came to the rescue, but other Empire people joined in, and the railroad people were overpowered, and the man who claimed he paid his fare and his friends left the train when they got ready. No arrests.

Bought Out.

It is said that the Independent Telephone company, formerly conducted in Massillon, has been purchased by the Columbiana County company, and that workmen are at present engaged in putting it in excellent shape.

JOSEPH BROS.

COUNTY SOLDIER CENSUS.

Complete Official Returns for Every Precinct in Columbiana County.

Appended are the complete returns by townships and precincts of the assessors of their enumeration of ex-soldiers of the civil war and the Spanish American war. It is scarcely necessary, says the Buckeye State, to say that these figures are only approximately correct. In this regard they are very like other returns by the assessors, being in many cases conspicuous for their incorrectness. If the roster of the ex-soldiers of the remainder of the county is as incomplete as they are in Lisbon, the list is certainly an approximation to correctness. In Lisbon there are a number of old soldiers whose names are not on the list, for the simple reasons that the assessors neglected to make proper inquiries. Again, the returns are, in some cases, almost undecipherable, it being apparent that the compilers thereof are not only scarcely able to write but have no idea whatever of the proper method of filling out the blanks with which they are provided. If their returns are so incomplete in the matter of statistics, what they must be in the line of placing values upon property can scarcely be imagined. Some of the books filed with the auditor are absolute curiosities, and more resemble the scratchings of a child with a dull stub of a pencil than official returns. It is a crying demand that a better class of men be chosen for assessors.

The following are the figures for this county, as correctly as they could be secured from the books.

Death of Mrs. Foster.

Superintendent M. M. Southworth, of the Fairmount Children's home, Alliance, has received a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Bird Foster at Cambridge. She has been ill since last September. Two years ago she resigned her position as teacher at the Fairmount home, where she had been employed for seven years. She was a lady of high Christian character and was dearly beloved by many acquaintances, who will be pained to learn of her death.

While in Alliance she was a member of the Presbyterian church, but soon after leaving there she united with the Methodist church in Cambridge. She was 43 years of age. Her husband died some 11 years ago. Miss Hattie Rowles, a sister, who is employed at the home, left for her bedside three weeks ago.

Funeral of Mrs. George Harris.

Mrs. George Harris, who died Wednesday afternoon at her home in the East End, was buried at 11 o'clock today at Mercer, Pa. The remains were shipped to that place on this morning's train, accompanied by the family and several friends.

Planked Shad. Escaloped Potatoes.
Stewed Cucumbers. Baked New Onions.
Beet and String Bean Salad.
Pistachio Ice Cream. Cake.
Coffee.

STEWED CUCUMBERS.—Select six medium sized cucumbers, pare and cut into quarter inch slices and place in salt water one hour. Drain and cover with boiling water. Cook about 20 minutes, or until tender. Drain, place in a hot dish and pour over two tablespoonfuls of melted butter. Serve very hot.

Church Rules.

Bishop Horstman, of the Catholic church, has promulgated a number of rules governing the action of his parishioners during the summer months. Societies organized for beneficial purposes, whose benefits are confined to the membership or societies organized for private ends, will not be permitted to appeal to the public for charity. Such appeals are to be made only when the funds are to be used in a public way. All kinds of round dancing, dancing in halls or ball rooms, for the purpose of raising money for church purposes, or public charities are strictly and unqualifiedly forbidden. Moonlight excursions, picnics continued after nightfall, and meetings of the people where morals or good behavior are endangered are strictly forbidden.

Nothing But Difficulties.

One of the projectors of the cross-county steam railway remarked to the Buckeye a few days since that the reduction in the price of steel rails has removed the only obstruction to the early entering upon the active work of building the road, and he thought they would begin work about next—but just then he noticed the incredulous smile on the reportorial face that he had so often seen before, and walked away in evident disgust. The great trouble with which the builders of this road have to contend is the multiplicity of difficulties, one following immediately upon the removal of that which preceded it. Whenever the supply of difficulties is exhausted something will probably be done.

Fight on Growler.

A fight occurred just above Toronto Tuesday evening on the C. & P. train known as the "growler," in which the train crew were worsted. A crowd of Empire men boarded the train at Toronto. A disagreement arose between one of them and Conductor Thomas Leith over a fare. The brakeman interfered and was knocked out completely. A railroad detective also came to the rescue, but other Empire people joined in, and the railroad people were overpowered, and the man who claimed he paid his fare and his friends left the train when they got ready. No arrests.

It is said that the Independent Telephone company, formerly conducted in Massillon, has been purchased by the Columbiana County company, and that workmen are at present engaged in putting it in excellent shape.

COUNTY SOLDIER CENSUS.

Complete Official Returns for Every Precinct in Columbiana County.

Appended are the complete returns by townships and precincts of the assessors of their enumeration of ex-soldiers of the civil war and the Spanish American war. It is scarcely necessary, says the Buckeye State, to say that these figures are only approximately correct. In this regard they are very like other returns by the assessors, being in many cases conspicuous for their incorrectness. If the roster of the ex-soldiers of the remainder of the county is as incomplete as they are in Lisbon, the list is certainly an approximation to correctness. In Lisbon there are a number of old soldiers whose names are not on the list, for the simple reasons that the assessors neglected to make proper inquiries. $300 Bond.

IT IS NOT HIS FIRST OFFENSE

Officer Aufderheide last evening placed Jack Quinn under arrest upon a charge of non-support filed by his wife in the court of Squire McCarron. This is the second time Quinn has been before McCarron on the same charge and the last time he agreed to give her $4 per week and was released providing he fulfilled the contract. He didn't do it, however, and Squire McCarron this morning bound him over to court in the sum of $300. If he don't secure the bond some time today he will be taken to Lisbon to be sentenced.

Quinn is an old offender and it would be a hard matter to tell just how many times he had been in court on charges of non-support. He is a splendid pleader and a good man to make promises and has been very lucky in escaping a trip long before this time.

Our Tail of Summer Sale is going on, and it will be well for you to take advantage of it. You will save money by doing so.

THE WRONG SIZE

In suit or trousers, is never found upon our customers. Our stock is so large and well assorted and our salesmen so careful that the possibility of misfits are eliminated.

Clothing for men and boys of all ages.

The goods are interesting whether examined from the standpoint of quality, style or price.

EXPERIENCE TEACHES

Our customers that values here are ever becoming greater, while prices are kept down to a dead level or reduced a point or two. But we want those who have not purchased Men's Furnishings here to get some of the many good things we offer. Every line contains a fine assortment of stylish articles of fine quality.

OUR many customers and friends know, from our past sales, that we don't make any sensational or impossible assertions. We advertise only that which we do. We manufacture all our own goods. We always save you the middleman's profit; and when we have these SPECIAL SALES, we don't profess to sell goods for less than cost, as that is unreasonable, and no sensible man or woman believes it. But what we do advertise, and what we really do, is to sell all goods at about the cost of manufacture. We do this for the simple reason that we want to turn our stock into cash, and make room for our Fall Stock, as we always want to have nice, new, clean, nobby goods each season. We usually wait until after the FOURTH of JULY to make our reductions; but this season, knowing that there are a great many men and boys who will want a new suit for the FOURTH, we commence two weeks earlier. We haven't the time or space to give you any prices at this time; but if you need—

TERMS EXPIRED.

ONE WELLSVILLE AND TWO EAST LIVERPOOL PRISONERS

Released Yesterday from the County Jail at Lisbon After Prolonged Visits.

Lisbon, June 22.—(Special.)—John Brown, of Wellsville, and Neff Laird and Freeman French, of East Liverpool, were released from jail yesterday on expiration of term.

Brown was in for stealing a ham, Laird for stealing ware and French for cruelty to an animal and malicious destruction of property.

IT WAS FUNNY.

And the Landlord Enjoyed the Situation in a Marked Degree.

He is a tenant, and one of that class known to landlords as exasperating. He is a self-important individual, pompous and pretentious, the quintessence of egotism and self-conceit. If he were in the market, and you were bidding for the possession of his physical frame, there would be a vast difference between the price he would set upon himself and that you were willing to give for him.

As we said in the beginning of this article, he is a tenant, or renter. His landlord is a pleasant, courteous, obliging gentleman, but possessed withal of an aggressive temperament and not possessed with Job-like patience. The landlord desired to make the tenant's domicile look more than usually neat and attractive, and with his end and aim in view sent a painter to the house where Mr. Egotism sojourned, with instructions to the artist to expend his best skill on one of the doors of the domicile. Mr. Renter met the artist with the following summary:

"You'll do no painting here. You'll not touch that door. I'm running this establishment. I pay rent for this house, I do, and I'll run it to suit myself."

The abashed and discomfited slinger of colors beat an ignominious retreat and met the owner of the house on one of the prominent thoroughfares, told his story and was persuaded to return to the scene of conflict. Then the landlord put on his most winning and courteous smile and was more thoroughly called down than was the long-suffering and patient painter. Then the landlord tried the soft answer dodge, the use of which is warranted to turn away wrath. But this met with even a more chilling and austere reception. Then the landlord waxed warm beneath his vestment as he said:

"Oh, come now, that isn't fair. I'm really doing you a favor and want to fix up affairs nicely for you. I've secured this gentleman's services and I don't want him to go away without doing this job of painting. Painters are scarce, and you can't get one just when you want him. You're not in earnest, are you? You're only joking. I'm sure?"

And to this, Old Consequential said: "No, I'm not joking, and I won't be annoyed any more. I pay rent for this house and I'll run it to suit my own fancy and pleasure. You'll not put any paint on that door if I know myself, and I think I do."

And then our townsman spat on his digits, figuratively speaking, and Dame Rumor intimates that he made use of swear words in his wrath, winding up with the following orders to the painter man:

"Take the screws out of that door and then take the door to your shop and paint the thing to the queen's taste. Do her up brown and then bring her back and boost her into her place again, and this Smart Alec can go on guard and do sentry duty until you finish the job."

And that painter obeyed orders, and that renter made the air blue with a side conversation; but he didn't have sand, and the landlord has sand and to spare. Selah.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

How It Stood In 1896 and How Doubtful States Have Voted Since.

During the coming campaign questions will frequently be asked regarding the vote for president in 1896 in the electoral college and what changes there have been since then in the political complexion of the states.

The electoral vote of the United States in 1896 stood as follows:

States.	McKinley.	Bryan.
Alabama	11	3
Arkansas	8	3
California	8	1
Colorado	4	4
Connecticut	6	3
Delaware	3	3
Florida	4	13
Georgia	13	3
Idaho	3	24

Tennessee	12
Texas	15
Utah	3
Vermont	4
Virginia	12
Washington	4
West Virginia	6
Wisconsin	12
Wyoming	3

Totals 271 176

McKinley's majority 97. Since then and at the elections of 1898, Kansas, Wyoming and Washington, with their respective Bryan votes of 10, 3 and 4, or 17 in all, went Republican, Kansas by 15,134, Wyoming by 1,394 and Washington by 9,113, thus taking from the Bryan presidential column of 1896 just 17 votes, and leaving 159. Besides this the Republicans carried Kentucky last year for governor by 2,383 and California also last year by 19,093 in which two states Bryan in 1896 had one vote in each, and thus Bryan's vote in the electoral college is 3 further reduced by two, and down to 157. The electoral college this year, as in 1896, consists of 447 votes, and 224 is necessary to elect.

BACK TO MANSFIELD.

GUARD FROM THE REFORMATORY HERE AFTER PITTENGER.

Mayor Davidson's Court Had an Off Day, But a Few Cases Were Disposed Of.

Robert Pittenger will go back to the Mansfield reformatory. That question has been finally settled and a guard from the reformatory will arrive in the city this evening for the purpose of taking charge of the unruly prisoner and putting him in a place where he will be good.

Susy McCoy, who was with Pittenger when he was arrested, was given a hearing by the mayor yesterday. She was fined $25 and costs, a total of $29.60. She didn't have the cash, but a friend of her's said he would pay the bill. He didn't have the cash and was given until today to get it. If the money is not forthcoming before tomorrow morning Susy will be given a ride to the Canton workhouse, where she will spend several months in learning how to behave herself.

Terry McGill, who was arrested by Officer McDonald, was assessed $1 and costs, paid it and was released.

Charles Smith, who was arrested by Officers Gill and Dawson, came from Youngstown. It cost him $5.60 to square up with the police department of this city. He paid it and left a sadder but wiser man.

There was not one arrest last night and business at the police court was consequently very slow this morning.

LADY MACCABEES.

New Lodge Formed in Alliance by Great Commander Mrs. E. S. Olds.

Mrs. Emma S. Olds, great commander L. O. T. M. of Ohio, and lieutenant supreme commander of the world, instituted a hive of the Ladies of the Maccabees in the lodge room, Memorial building, at Alliance this week. Forty-one persons were admitted to membership, and a banquet was held after the institution of the new hive.

The order of the L. O. T. M., was organized in 1892 and now has a membership of 130,000, there being 15,000 in Ohio. The order is fraternal and beneficial. The new hive promises to have a membership of over 100 by the close of the year.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

Rev. J. C. Jackson Will Speak at the Methodist Protestant Church Next Sunday.

At the temperance mass meeting next Sunday evening in the Methodist Protestant church the Rev. J. C. Jackson, D. D., assistant national superintendent and editor of the American Issue, will speak. Dr. Jackson is a very strong speaker.

Children's day exercises will be held in this church Sunday morning.

TERMS EXPIRED.

ONE WELLSVILLE AND TWO EAST LIVERPOOL PRISONERS

Released Yesterday from the County Jail at Lisbon After Prolonged Visits.

Lisbon, June 22.—(Special.)—John Brown, of Wellsville, and Neff Laird and Freeman French, of East Liverpool, were released from jail yesterday on expiration of term.

Brown was in for stealing a ham, Laird for stealing ware and French for cruelty to an animal and malicious destruction of property.

IT WAS FUNNY.

And the Landlord Enjoyed the Situation in a Marked Degree.

He is a tenant, and one of that class known to landlords as exasperating. He is a self-important individual, pompous and pretentious, the quintessence of egotism and self-conceit. If he were in the market, and you were bidding for the possession of his physical frame, there would be a vast difference between the price he would set upon himself and that you were willing to give for him.

As we said in the beginning of this article, he is a tenant, or renter. His landlord is a pleasant, courteous, obliging gentleman, but possessed withal of an aggressive temperament and not possessed with Job-like patience. The landlord desired to make the tenant's domicile look more than usually neat and attractive, and with his end and aim in view sent a painter to the house where Mr. Egotism sojourned, with instructions to the artist to expend his best skill on one of the doors of the domicile. Mr. Renter met the artist with the following summary:

"You'll do no painting here. You'll not touch that door. I'm running this establishment. I pay rent for this house, I do, and I'll run it to suit myself."

The abashed and discomfited slinger of colors beat an ignominious retreat and met the owner of the house on one of the prominent thoroughfares, told his story and was persuaded to return to the scene of conflict. Then the landlord put on his most winning and courteous smile and was more thoroughly called down than was the long-suffering and patient painter. Then the landlord tried the soft answer dodge, the use of which is warranted to turn away wrath. But this met with even a more chilling and austere reception. Then the landlord waxed warm beneath his vestment as he said:

"Oh, come now, that isn't fair. I'm really doing you a favor and want to fix up affairs nicely for you. I've secured this gentleman's services and I don't want him to go away without doing this job of painting. Painters are scarce, and you can't get one just when you want him. You're not in earnest, are you? You're only joking. I'm sure?"

And to this, Old Consequential said: "No, I'm not joking, and I won't be annoyed any more. I pay rent for this house and I'll run it to suit my own fancy and pleasure. You'll not put any paint on that door if I know myself, and I think I do."

And then our townsman spat on his digits, figuratively speaking, and Dame Rumor intimates that he made use of swear words in his wrath, winding up with the following orders to the painter man:

"Take the screws out of that door and then take the door to your shop and paint the thing to the queen's taste. Do her up brown and then bring her back and boost her into her place again, and this Smart Alec can go on guard and do sentry duty until you finish the job."

And that painter obeyed orders, and that renter made the air blue with a side conversation; but he didn't have sand, and the landlord has sand and to spare. Selah.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

How It Stood In 1896 and How Doubtful States Have Voted Since.

During the coming campaign questions will frequently be asked regarding the vote for president in 1896 in the electoral college and what changes there have been since then in the political complexion of the states.

The electoral vote of the United States in 1896 stood as follows:

States.	McKinley.	Bryan.
Alabama	11	3
Arkansas	8	3
California	8	1
Colorado	6	4
Connecticut	6	3
Delaware	3	3
Florida	4	13
Georgia	13	3
Idaho	3	24
Illinois	24	15
Indiana	15	13
Iowa	13	10
Kansas	10	8
Kentucky	12	8
Louisiana	8	6
Maine	6	8
Maryland	8	15
Massachusetts	15	14
Michigan	14	9
Minnesota	9	17
Mississippi	9	8
Missouri	17	3
Montana	8	3
Nebraska	3	4
Nevada	3	10
New Hampshire	4	36
New Jersey	10
New York	36

North Carolina	11
North Dakota	3
Ohio	23
Oregon	4
Pennsylvania	32
Rhode Island	4
South Carolina	9
South Dakota	4
Tennessee	12
Texas	15
Utah	3
Vermont	4
Virginia	12
Washington	4
West Virginia	6
Wisconsin	12
Wyoming	3

Totals 271 176

McKinley's majority 97.

Since then and at the elections of 1898, Kansas, Wyoming and Washington, with their respective Bryan votes of 10, 3 and 4, or 17 in all, went Republican, Kansas by 15,134, Wyoming by 1,394 and Washington by 9,113, thus taking from the Bryan presidential column of 1896 just 17 votes, and leaving 159. Besides this the Republicans carried Kentucky last year for governor by 2,383 and California also last year by 19,093 in which two states Bryan in 1896 had one vote in each, and thus Bryan's vote in the electoral college is further reduced by two, and down to 157. The electoral college this year, as in 1896, consists of 447 votes, and 224 is necessary to elect.

BACK TO MANSFIELD.

GUARD FROM THE REFORMATORY HERE AFTER PITTINGER.

Mayor Davidson's Court Had an Off Day, But a Few Cases Were Disposed Of.

Robert Pittinger will go back to the Mansfield reformatory. That question has been finally settled and a guard from the reformatory will arrive in the city this evening for the purpose of taking charge of the unruly prisoner and putting him in a place where he will be good.

Susy McCoy, who was with Pittenger when he was arrested, was given a hearing by the mayor yesterday. She was fined $25 and costs, a total of $29.60. She didn't have the cash, but a friend of her's said he would pay the bill. He didn't have the cash and was given until today to get it. If the money is not forthcoming before tomorrow morning Susy will be given a ride to the Canton workhouse, where she will spend several months in learning how to behave herself.

Terry McGill, who was arrested by Officer McDonald, was assessed $1 and costs, paid it and was released.

Charles Smith, who was arrested by Officers Gill and Dawson, came from Youngstown. It cost him $5.60 to square up with the police department of this city. He paid it and left a sadder but wiser man.

There was not one arrest last night and business at the police court was consequently very slow this morning.

LADY MACCABEES.

New Lodge Formed in Alliance by

Great Commander

Mrs. E. S. Olds.

Mrs. Emma S. Olds, great commander L. O. T. M. of Ohio, and lieutenant supreme commander of the world, instituted a hive of the Ladies of the Maccabees in the lodge room, Memorial building, at Alliance this week. Forty-one persons were admitted to membership, and a banquet was held after the institution of the new hive.

The order of the L. O. T. M., was organized in 1892 and now has a membership of 130,000, there being 15,000 in Ohio. The order is fraternal and beneficial. The new hive promises to have a membership of over 100 by the close of the year.
